All is silent
in the sea of weightlessness

As if we are passing through tunnels as past and present merge in the view

We who inhabit the earth blow like frogs on the bottom of a pool

Imprisoned on a tiny dot on a distant edge of unknown vastness

For these sacrifices in treasure and blood were to come a new perspective

We stand on the threshold unthinkable, perhaps like sand through heaven's blue hourglass

Only if man could rise above the summit of the air could he behold the true earth

„If men could rise above“
